Reflections & Ruminations... by Fr. Steve Angi

In the pastor's column this weekend, I have asked Fr. Aaron to reflect on the pilgrimage to Italy with members of our Family of Parishes. His reflection follows:

Both last week and this week, I shared some photos and reflections on our pilgrimage to Italy. As I said there, it was an incredibly prayerful opportunity for all of us. But I wanted to share a little of my own personal reflection from the trip. In the days leading up to our departure, I had been asking the Lord what He wanted to show me through this pilgrimage, and I kept coming back to the simple yet profound reflection: God wanted to just be a father to me. I need to allow myself to be a son, to receive the gifts from His generous love. So that became my prayer throughout the week: Lord, let me be open to your generosity.

And it did not take long for God to respond. I randomly found St. Carlo Acutis within half an hour of arriving at Assisi and got to pray with him on my own. This was my first time as a priest overseas, and so being able not just to attend but to celebrate Masses in such incredible locations was a gift. God was very good to me. But there was one gift that I think was very "tailored" to me, at least in my mind. I have always enjoyed music in many different forms. I've especially come to love playing and listening to the organ. So one evening, we were scheduled to join a group of Benedictine monks at 5:30 for chanted Vespers, the evening prayers of the Church. We arrived at the Abbey, said Mass, and then found out that Vespers actually started at 6:30, meaning we had an extra hour to wander the peaceful grounds and pray on our own. I was walking around the church to get to another section when suddenly organ music came spilling out of the church. Someone had started practicing on the instrument, right when we had free time, and right when I walked by the open door. So I went into the church, took a seat, and ended up spending the remainder of that hour in prayer, surrounded by the beauty of this Italian Abbey church and the beautiful organ music. I was one of the few from our group that got to soak in this incredible experience, and it was so tailored to what brings me joy. It was a perfect gift from the Father to me, His son.

I think that has been the biggest takeaway for me personally from this trip: God wants to spoil us, His children. He is such a generous and loving God, and He wants to pour out more and more graces upon us. Quite often, though, we are not ready or willing to ask. Or we are looking in the wrong places. Or, when a gift is given, we brush it off as coincidence. And all too often, we don't return to God in gratitude for the gifts we receive.

We are closing in upon the Holiday season, a time of gifts and thankfulness. I encourage all of you during this time to open your hearts to God's unexpected gifts that He wants to give you. Do not be afraid to ask. Be open to how He is going to respond, because it probably is not going to be what you expect, and you could miss them when they arrive. But once you do receive it, soak it in, accept the love of the Father, and relish the fact that you are a loved treasure in the eyes of the Lord of the Universe. And He finds great joy in you and in your joy.

God bless,

Fr. Aaron

Over the past few years, the Knights have paid out several thousand dollars in scholarships. In the spring there will be another essay contest for grades 3 through 7.

For an application or more information, please contact Bob Meyer at 513-404-0133 or ram8607@yahoo.com.

Sensory-Friendly Masses at SJF

As you are likely aware, in conjunction with the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Office of Persons With Disabilities, St. John Fisher has been offering a sensory-friendly Mass with American Sign Language on the first Sunday of each month. This Mass is dedicated to friends who are deaf and those with sensory needs. It has been offered since May with Fr. Charles, the chaplain for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Deaf Community, presiding. While we are grateful for the many attendees, unfortunately the response from the deaf community has been minimal, and as such we will no longer be able to host this Mass. Our final sensory-friendly Mass at St. John Fisher will be Sunday, December 7th at 12:30 pm.

We are happy to share that starting January 4th, there will be a Sensory-Friendly Space at Immaculate Heart of Mary during the 11:30 am Mass every Sunday. This space will be located in the Guadalupe Room and is intended for those who wish to attend Mass and need a sensory-friendly environment. The Mass will be live streamed on a TV in the Guadalupe Room. We look forward to celebrating Mass with you in 2026 at IHM EVERY Sunday at 11:30 am!

The 2025 SGG Advent Giving Trees at IHM & SJF will be up next weekend!

Christmas is right around the corner, so be on the lookout for the trees in the Gathering Spaces at IHM & SJF next weekend, November 22nd and 23rd. Please take as many tags as you can. There will be tags to fit every budget. The Giving Tree supports many agencies including Bethany House and Pregnancy Center Plus, just to name a couple.

Save the Date!

Solemn Vespers at the Athenaeum

On Sunday, December 7, Mount St. Mary's Seminary & School of Theology will celebrate Solemn Vespers at 7:30 pm in the Chapel of St. Gregory the Great. The Vespers will feature a set of patristic readings with corresponding carols and motets. Highlights of this extended musical offering include Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's stunning setting of the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary, K. 109 for choir and orchestra, along with music by José Mauricio Nunes Garcia, a Brazilian priest and composer who admired Mozart's music and promoted the Classical style. There will be no pre-vespers organ recital.

Thanksgiving Mass

Thanksgiving Day Mass in the St. Gregory the Great family will be celebrated at St. John Fisher at 9:00 am on Thursday, November 27th.

Please pause that morning and gather with your parish family and friends as we give thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed on each of us.

On behalf of the office and school staffs at Guardian Angels, Immaculate Heart of Mary, and St. John Fisher, we wish you and your loved ones a happy and safe Thanksgiving holiday!

Called for More: SGG Advent Season Holy Hour of Prayer

Praying together as a community is a wonderful way to honor Jesus during Advent this year. Join us each Monday during Advent at IHM for a Holy Hour of prayer, with exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary and Vespers prayer. Prayer begins at 7 pm on Monday December 1 and continues each Monday through December leading up to Christmas.

Anointing of the Sick at SJF November 30

St. John Fisher will have their fifth Sunday of the month Anointing of the Sick immediately following both Masses on November 30th. Parishioners are encouraged to be anointed at the beginning of an illness or in anticipation of a serious medical procedure.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that 'The Anointing of the Sick conveys several graces and imparts gifts of strengthening in the Holy Spirit against anxiety, discouragement, and temptation, and conveys peace and fortitude.' (1520)

If you would like to receive this sacrament, please move to the front pews after Mass at St. John Fisher that weekend.

Volunteers Needed at SJF on Sunday, November 23 after the 11:00 am Mass

The Environment Team at St. John Fisher is looking for volunteers to assist in transitioning the church from Ordinary Time to Advent. Assistance is needed on Sunday, November 23rd after the 11:00 Mass at St. John Fisher to bring up Christmas trees, change the altar cloths, and rearrange plants. We would love your help in getting the worship space ready during this Advent season. If you can spare some time that day, please stay in church after Mass.

HEALTH MINISTRY: NEWS AND EVENTS

Fernside: Supporting Children and Families Through Grief

Fernside, established in 1986, is the nation's second oldest children's grief center and remains today a national leader in providing grief support services and outreach and education to the community and families. An affiliate of Hospice of Cincinnati, Fernside services compliment Hospice of Cincinnati's comprehensive bereavement program by addressing the unique needs of children ages 3-18 and their families.

Fernside hosts meetings at IHM on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month during the school year. Fernside's services are offered at no cost to families, thanks to the generous donors who support their mission. Registration is required; contact Fernside at 513-246-9140 to sign up.

Eucharistic Ministry to Facilities

Are you an EMHC? Would you like to bring Holy Communion to people in nursing homes, assisted living facilities and senior living communities? Some of the facilities served are: StoryPoint Cincinnati (formerly New England Club), The Anderson, The Ashford, Harmony, Salem Woods, Arden Courts, and more.

Contact the Director of Health Ministry, Kendall Keiser RN at 513-388-4184 and she will tell you the next steps to take to get involved.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Homebound

Eucharistic ministers, through this compassionate ministry, respectfully administer the Holy Eucharist to those who are ill, or temporarily incapacitated and confined to their home. Eucharistic Ministers need to be good listeners, friendly, willing to spend a little time, and flexible.

Finding Hope in the Season* Mass and Reception

Thursday, December 11, 6:30 pm
at Guardian Angels

Dan's Story

My mother had a very tough teenage upbringing, and holidays were always difficult. Because of this, once she had her own family she poured her heart into making Christmas a joyful and faith-based experience for all of her children. My siblings and I have continued to celebrate and enjoy the Christmas season with our own families as they grew.

Unfortunately for Mom, ever since Dad died in December several years ago, it has made Christmas lonely, depressing, and hard to get through for her, regardless of how much we have tried to help. How I wish and pray she could have a seasonal celebration that would reach through to her.

Special Opportunity

If the holidays feel heavy, you are not alone. Are you, or others you know, challenged with the Christmas season? Everyone else is in a lighthearted spirit, and you feel alone in a crowd. Join us for a Finding Hope in the Season Mass and Reception on December 11th at Guardian Angels Church at 6:30 pm. We will celebrate as a group and focus on the hope, love, and peace that Jesus can bring to us.

To learn more about the December 11th Mass or the SGG Mental Wellness Ministry, contact Kendall Keiser at kendallk@sggparish.org or 513-388-4184.

Grief Support Group

Join others on your journey from grief to healing in a nurturing, relaxed atmosphere. This support group is for any adult who has lost a loved one through death. The group meets every 1st and 3rd Thursday at 4 pm year-round at Guardian Angels downstairs in Room B. If you would like to attend or have questions, simply call the GA rectory 513-231-7440.

FAITH FORMATION & EVANGELIZATION

Spotlight on SGG's Youth Ministry Programs

We have two phenomenal Youth Ministers who tag-team our two Youth Groups:

Middle School – Alex Bodenschatz leads the 6th – 8th graders in what I like to call “Balls and Bible talk”. Between our pool table, our ping pong table, 10 Pepper Pong sets, our 9 Square set, and our new “Pop-A-Shot”, we find lots of ways to “bounce” ideas off one another about those games AND how Jesus shows us how to have fun and win in the game of life by way of His teachings in the Bible.

High School – Alison Richert leads our 9th through 12th graders in weekly sessions that go beyond the bouncing balls. The older teens are more into deeper dives on relevant topics in their lives: how to manage the stresses and anxiety of life, what does “discipleship” look like, how to enrich their faith experience, and how to be “in” the world but not “of” it, among others. We typically end each session with our own “bouncing ball” contest: an always rousing game of “Ricochet”!

BONUS: LifePREP – Steve Von Hoene is heading up our first year with this super cool “teen life skills” program. Ultimately it will be three levels: “100” for 8th graders, “200” for 9th and 10th graders, and “300” for 11th and 12th graders. Teens brainstorm a list of 100 Dreams. We then pick one they can likely accomplish within the next 6-8 months. They then meet monthly as a group to talk about progress and strategies to accomplish their dreams, while learning key life skills along the way. They follow those meetings up with 1:1 meetings with a “Teen Life Coach” (TLC) who they’ve chosen to work with them on the various elements in the program. Monthly “FYI” meetings are also held for the Parents and Coaches.

Catalyst Events for 6th – 12th graders (in Reading)

Games, small groups, prayer – theme: “Living for Christ!”

Remaining dates: 12/1, 2/2, 3/2, 4/13, 5/4

Lifeline Events for 9th – 12th graders (in West Chester)

Billed as “A Eucharistic Encounter for High School Youth”, Lifeline events include an engaging keynote speaker, a Youth-oriented vigil Mass (covers you for Sunday!), a Eucharistic Exposition holy hour, and fun praise and worship music (suitable for even the most reserved “Cradle Catholic”!)

Remaining dates: 11/22, 2/28*, 3/28, 4/25 (Bradley Barnes will be the keynote speaker on 2/28!)

St. Gregory the Great Family Advent Wreath Making Event at Guardian Angels

Join us for a joyful Advent Wreath Making Event at Guardian Angels on Sunday, November 23, right after the 10 am Mass!

Families from the St. Gregory the Great community are welcome to gather in the Church Undercroft to create a beautiful wreath as we prepare our hearts for the holiness of the Advent season and the birth of Jesus. We'll have pizza, snacks, and drinks to enjoy while we craft, and while a donation to help cover the cost of supplies is appreciated, it is not mandatory.

Please RSVP using the QR code with the number of wreaths you need and the number of family members joining.

If you already have a wreath form at home or purchased one from the PTA, feel free to bring that and include a note indicating that you will be BYO wreath. Bring the whole family to celebrate this special time of preparation together!

Women's Wednesday Night of Reflection: Preparing Our Hearts For Advent

To all women of our SGG family, you are invited to our annual Women's Wednesday Advent gathering! Meet us in the IHM Church at 7 pm on November 19th as we prepare for the Advent season.

Our time together will include scripture readings, time for reflection, candlelight, and music, as we enter into a season of preparation for Christ's second coming and for the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. Then, around 7:45 we will have social time in the gathering space. Friends and neighbors are certainly welcome. We hope to see you there!

Upcoming Events

November 21: Fathers Team Topic: Adoration. Join us for an hour of Adoration. 6:03 – 7:03 am

Locations: IHM – St. Matthew Room (Welcome Center), GA – Conference Room B, SJF (Fathers Team Lite) – Discussion of Sunday Mass readings – Nativity Room

November 17: Young Men's Faith & Fellowship at GA (men 20-40) Topic: First Society. 8:30 – 9:30 pm in Room B at GA
mensfaith@gaparish.org

December 10: Young Women's Faith & Fellowship at GA Topic: Dwell, a Study on the Eucharist session 3. 8:15 – 9:15 pm in Room B at GA
womensfaith@gaparish.org

SOCIAL ACTION | VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The Prison Ministry Angel Tree Project is off and running!

Christmas can be a very difficult time for children with an incarcerated parent and we want to ease their pain. Volunteers are needed to provide gifts for the children and to help with deliveries. To volunteer, please scan the QR code to view the signup.

Walking with Moms in Need

Walking with Moms in Need is an initiative of the Ohio bishops. This ministry supports mothers with a wide variety of needs, connecting mothers to resources such as Healthy Moms and Babies, A Caring Place, Pregnancy Center Plus, St. Vincent de Paul, medical services, mental health services, and other resources in the community. St. Gregory the Great family of parishes is in the developmental stages of this ministry.

We've had more people participate in our October 23rd meeting, and we are growing! We will have our next meeting on Thursday, November 13th from 7 - 8:30 pm at Guardian Angels in Room B. To get there, go inside the church gathering space and then take the steps on the left to go downstairs. For more information, contact Monika at monikadadosky@gmail.com.

IHM Project Education Batahola begins its 21st year of sponsoring over 195 students at the Cultural Center of Batahola, Managua, Nicaragua.

Give the gift of sponsoring a student or adult this Christmas.

For more information, contact Jim Vorwald at jvorwald@fuse.net.

Thank You!

A very BIG thank you to everyone who supported the Angels for Life Baby Shower!! It was a great success! Representatives from the Pregnancy Center Plus came to and graciously accepted all the donations from St. Gregory the Great Family of parishes. Your donations of innumerable baby items, cash and gift cards will help many families in need. Thank you again for your overwhelming support and may God bless you!!

Angels for Life / Respect Life Ministry

SEM Pantry Food Collection at IHM

The SEM Pantry will be distributing holiday baskets of food for the Thanksgiving and Christmas season. Please bring shelf-stable holiday food items such as stuffing, cranberry sauce, gravy, pumpkin and other holiday foods on November 15/16 and December 20/21 and place in the bins in the gathering space at IHM.

You can also take items to the pantry at 2020 Beechmont Avenue. Other food items welcome as well. Make the holiday special for our neighbors in need! Financial donations are welcome as SEM Pantry distributes $15 gift certificates.

Through the Wilderness: Healing for a Weary World

This is an Advent Just Faith program being presented by SGG Social Action Committee members Debbie Metz, Barb Szucsik, and Sue Keefe. It is based on four readings of Isaiah. The sessions will be held at IHM in the St. Matthew's room Tuesday afternoons from 1:30 - 3:30 pm on November 25, December 2, December 9, December 16 and January 6. If you are interested, email Sue Keefe at skkeefe37@gmail.com and she will email the participant's packet to you. There are no additional books to read nor any cost for the program.

IN OUR COMMUNITY

St. Gregory the Great 60+ Activities

November 18 - You're invited to our final Euchre Afternoon of 2025! All skill levels are welcome – whether you're a seasoned player or just starting out. Join hosts, Mike and Carol, in the Blessed Mother Room in IHM's Welcome Center from 2-4 pm. We look forward to seeing you and sharing a fun afternoon together.

December 4 – Our service project at SVDP, 813 Main St, Milford, 10 am - noon. We will assist in destruction of outdated prescription drugs in the Charitable Pharmacy. Carpool can be arranged. For details, call Dan or Pam at 513-232-4009 (does not accept text messages) by November 27.

December 9 – Join us for our Out to Dinner night at the Greyhound Tavern, now under new management, located at 2500 Dixie Hwy, Ft. Mitchell, 41017. The evening begins at 6:30 pm, and we are excited to gather at this charming venue. Due to our large group, the full menu will not be available, but we will have eight of their most popular items from which to choose. Dinner is a set price of $35 per person +tax +18% tip. (If you pay with a credit card, there is a 3% additional fee.) Please note that reservations are required by November 25, with a limit of 32 attendees. To reserve your spot, call Tina at 513-505-6983.

December 14 - Cincinnati Pops Orchestra production of the Holiday Pops, 2:00 pm with John Morris Russell, conductor. Year after year, the Holiday Pops has created magical memories for us. This year's show features Grammy-nominated singer-songwriter Cody Fry, choruses and dancers from around the city to bring your holiday favorites to life. Our group will be seated in the Gallery Section. With limited tickets at $44 each, call Rosemary at 513-227-4547 early and by November 23 to reserve yours. To mingle with members of our group, join us in Corbett Tower before the performance.

December 16 – Join us for a private tour of the newly renovated Guardian Angels Church and Rectory with Fr. King, the King of Christmas! After learning history of the church, Fr. King will guide us through his wonderful collection of nativities, creches, and Christmas decorations. Fr. King's engaging insights and humor promise to make this a memorable experience. Please gather in the church foyer prior to the scheduled start time of 3:30 pm. Contact maryfwinkel@gmail.com or 513-315-8306 by December 4. We look forward to celebrating the season with you!

SGG Family of Parishes

Thanksgiving for Life Fundraiser

Keeping the tradition of Christ in Christmas, the GA Angels for Life ministry will raffle a beautiful 12-piece Fontanini Nativity set.

Fill out the form by scanning the QR code to make a secure donation and get your name in the pot for the raffle. One free will donation of any amount = one chance to win. Everyone from the St. Gregory the Great family of parishes is invited to participate. You can also stop by GA's rectory and fill out a form. Additional forms can be found in the GA gathering space.

The set will be on display at GA after all Masses next weekend, November 22nd and 23rd. Please submit your entry and donation by Monday, November 24th if using the QR code, all others by Monday, December 1st.

Fr. King will draw the winner on December 2nd. Thank you and God bless you for your continued support of our respect life projects. Questions? Call Marcia at 513-256-2841.

Jesuit Spiritual Center Retreat

Plan to attend a silent, preached, weekend retreat at the Jesuit Spiritual Center in Milford the weekend of January 9-11. Weaving together the biography of St. Francis Xavier and elements of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola, this retreat will encourage participants to reflect on their own lives and how they've unfolded in both expected and unexpected ways.

Join Fr. Michael Graham, SJ, as he provides a series of presentations designed to assist you with your prayer, reflection, and spiritual journey.

Also included in your retreat are opportunities for Mass, Reconciliation, Adoration, Stations of the Cross, the Rosary, silent reflection, and a healing service with the Anointing of the Sick.

Visit their website for more details: Jesuitspiritualcenter.com.

SPOTLIGHT

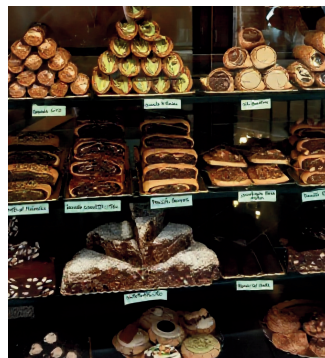

Pilgrimage to Italy

As promised in last week's bulletin, here are a few more pictures from the recent pilgrimage to Italy with 37 members from the St. Gregory the Great family.

Fr. Aaron has provided a few thoughts about the trip on page three of this bulletin in Fr. Steve's Reflections and Ruminations column.

This column, top to bottom and left to right: our group of pilgrims, the Cathedral in Orvieto, a lovely and narrow Italian street, the group in front of St. John Lateran, delectable Italian bakery treats

Right column from top to bottom: a charming piazza in Rome, a view of St. Peter's in Rome at sunset, Mass at San Martino in Siena

Keep in Mind

It is both astounding and regretful that so many in our American culture today consider some of the gifts of God to be too bothersome for consideration.

Among God's many gifts, consider the sacrament of reconciliation. Contritely telling a confessor our sins is an exercise in humility and trust before God. It may be difficult and require courage on our part. Yet it is the pathway to freedom! As the devil said to Saint Nicola di Flue, "The greatest defeat God has inflicted on us is the sacrament of penance: because a soul in the state of mortal sin belongs to us, but with a good confession he is snatched away."

Liberation from the slavery of sin obtained through the merits of the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ literally infuriates the Devil! (Fr. Gabriel Amorth)

Let's be grateful for the sacrament of Reconciliation and use it joyfully and often.

Deacon Bob

St. Gregory the Great Family of Parishes Prayer

St. Gregory the Great, patron saint of teachers, present our prayer of gratitude to our Heavenly Father. Share our prayer of wisdom and guidance as we continue on the path to unify our family of parishes. Just as you led the faithful knowing "the proof of love is in the works", open our hearts to be dedicated disciples of Jesus through prayer, teaching, sacraments and service. May our works, inspired by Jesus, guide us to unity within our family and love within our community. Teach us humility and compassion, the cornerstones of generosity, and the unwavering faith you demonstrated through times of change, so that we come together in unity, rooted in Christ's love. Amen.
